ROBO FORCE®
NAZGAR™ THE TYRANT™
ACTION ROBOT FIGURE
No. 48334
Evil Robot Leader with "Growing" Legs and Glowing Brain

A key figure in the Robo Force® story, Nazgar™ the Tyrant™ is an evil dictator from the dim past of the planet Zelon and the arch-enemy of Maxx Steele™'s Robo Force. Now, after nearly 2000 years of silence, his preserved brain has been restored to a robot body of awesome powers as he leads the battle against the forces of good.

Nazgar begins as a 7-inch, articulated and fully decorated Action Robot Figure. Press the actuators on his heels and each leg "grows" independently. When his head is activated, it elevates and the detailed brain beneath his transparent brain dome lights up. When fully extended, Nazgar measures 9½ inches, reaching new heights of evil power. Nazgar's legs, arms, and hands pivot, and his hands accept all Robo Force hand weapons (not included).

Nazgar's packaged in an oversized window box with the same high-tech, line-art graphics as all the Robo Force Action Robot Figures. Includes in-pack comic book/cross-sell brochure, Robo Force Fan club offer and more. One "Robo Force" Fan Club member. One "AA" battery required (not included).

For ages 4 years and up.

Electroni Maxx Steele™ Programmable Robot
No. 48079
The Personal Robot with Wireless Remote Control

He walks, he talks, he plays games; he has a fully-articulated, motorized grasping claw, moving arms and wrist, total mobility, storage and carry compartments and an electronic computer brain. He is Electronic Maxx™ and he is the dream toy of the future!

Remove his hand-held master controller from the top of his head and you control his action. You make him speak, play games and music at the touch of the keyboard. His wireless remote control, programmable memory and "Learn Mode" enable you to program a sequence of actions and activities, and then Maxx will perform them again and again — by himself, from memory!

Maxx knows over 140 words, music, the time (via an internal electronic alarm clock that allows him to activate at a predetermined time) and some very exciting and unique electronic games (including "Moon Ball™" and "Force Field™") that you can play against him or another human being. In fact, Maxx can do almost anything a human being can! Complete with instruction manual and built-in rechargeable battery pack.

One 9-volt battery required (Not included.)

For ages 8 years and up.
Pack: 1 piece Wgt.: 34 lbs. Cube: 9
